

The lads in their hundreds

songs and readings of remembrance

music by ager butterworth gurney judge wood readings from brooke housman mccrae owen sassoon

David John Pike baritone

Isabelle Trub piano

with special guest readers

in aid of COPE LAOS

organised by the Anglican Church of Luxembourg

BRITISH AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE

16, boulevard Roosevelt, Luxembourg
by kind invitation of the Ambassador

Friday 16 November 2018, 19.45

reception to follow concert

advance tickets only, 30 euros

lynn.barclay@anglican.lu

BGL LU60 0030 7313 9569 4000

Baritone David John Pike has a widely varied repertoire covering early music, oratorio, symphonic, opera and commissioned works. In his native Canada, in the UK and across Europe, he has worked with leading ensembles including Glyndebourne Festival Opera, Academy of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London Philharmonic and the Schweizerkammerchor under the direction of Dutoit, Jurowski, Koopman, Marriner, Mehta, Rattle and Zinman. He now has a growing reputation as an operatic and concert soloist.

The Swiss/Australian/Luxemburgish pianist Isabelle Trüb represents the fourth generation in a long line of distinguished musicians. Already a prize winner at a young age, a scholarship from the Goehner Stiftung/Migros enabled Isabelle to further her outstanding musical potential at the University of Indiana, Bloomington, USA. Throughout her subsequent career, Isabelle has collaborated regularly throughout Europe and the USA with renowned artists.

All proceeds from this concert will go to charities that the Anglican Church of Luxembourg supports, specifically COPE Laos, which provides prosthetic, orthotic and rehabilitation services to people who lost limbs during the Vietnam war and those still being similarly injured, especially young children, by the many unexploded bombs and mines left from that period. To find out more about COPE Laos, come to the talk and film show we are holding on Wednesday 7 November, 8 pm at Centre Jean XXIII, 52 rue Jules Wilhelm, Luxembourg.

Seating is limited and advance reservation is essential. To book a seat — €30, including the reception afterwards — please write to lynn.barclay@anglican.lu giving the names of all the people you are booking for. To confirm, please transfer the appropriate sum by 12 November to the Anglican Church of Luxembourg at the BGL, LU60 0030 7313 9569 4000, quoting Remembrance Concert and your name.

We are grateful to the National Library of Scotland for permission to use the image on the front of this poster.

www.anglican.lu

