USINA: noun, only colloquially exists in a certain southern part of Luxembourg

USINA22: A showcase festival, curated by a dozen cultural actors throughout the grand duchy

The town of Dudelange, den Atelier, De Gudde Wëllen, with the support of Esch2022, present USINA22, a two-day open air festival at Neischmelz, Dudelange.

Local and national cultural players will be given the opportunity to present their artistic program to a large audience in the context of Esch2022, where Esch-sur-Alzette along 18 neighboring municipalities is the European Capital of Culture in 2022.

The line-up includes local artists as well as emerging international artists and features the globally acclaimed American rock band Kings of Leon headlining USINA22 festival on Saturday, June 11th 2022.

Starting a Cultural Revolution

The USINA22 festival brings together the biggest cultural players in Luxembourg's cultural landscape on an unprecedented scale. More than a dozen key figures contribute to the festival and curate the artistic program of the two-day festival.

The USINA22 Festival collaborators include CCRD opderschmelz • den Atelier • De Gudde Wëllen • Rotondes • Kulturfabrik • Koll an Aktioun • Schungfabrik • Rocklab • Réckel by Lycée des Arts et Métiers • DKollektiv • Dudelange On Wheels • De Läbbel • Aalt Stadhaus • Itinerantes

Experienced Partners Exploring New Paths Together

With CCRD opderschmelz, den Atelier and De Gudde Wëllen, three important players in the cultural scene in Luxembourg put their efforts together to offer the biggest showcase festival of Luxembourgish cultural work and arts that the country has ever seen.

A Beautiful Festival Site

The multi-venue festival includes iconic sites such as the CCRD opderschmelz, the Hall des Verstiaires & Wagonnage as well as the skate park and features a broad artistic line-up, crossing borders between music, theatre, dance, and visual arts alike.
