

Press Release
26.06.2023

Eurovision 2024

The long-awaited return of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg to the Eurovision Song Contest is underway!

After 30 long years, RTL is delighted to announce that they have taken up the responsibility of selecting the candidate or group who will proudly represent Luxembourg in Sweden in May 2024. Three minutes that will forever mark the happy contender!

Numerous speculations about the preselection have already been circulating in the press and on social media. The preselection process will be launched on July 3, 2023, and all the details regarding registrations and the recruitment of candidates and songwriter-composers will be communicated through the official website www.eurovision.lu.