Winners of the Luxembourg Nightlife Awards 10th anniversary edition have been announced

Luxembourg Nightlife Awards has celebrated its 10th anniversary edition this Sunday October 1st.

Around 1,000 people attended the award ceremony at ChouChou in Hollerich, to celebrate the best of what Luxembourg's nightlife has to offer in 2023.

The award ceremony was presented by Mr. Gabriel Boisante and featured the Jägermeister Brass Band with a music and dance show. DJ Sets were performed by David Devotion and MrDwen.

There were two main award categories in 2023:

- The Jury Awards : Here, to name a few of the winners, Ayrton from Le 18 was crowned the best barman, BAC the best new place, Pas Sage the best wine bar, Go Ten the best bar for clubbing and Drupi's in Esch sur Alzette as the best bar out of town.
- The Public Awards: Here the public for example voted for LOA as best event, Melusina as best club, DJ Chu as best DJ Generalist and Zulu as best bar.

Public votes for the Public Award category were collected through the RTL website and with 28.000 votes registered the highest participation number in the history of LNA.

At the award ceremony a special jury award entitled "Coup de Coeur" was awarded to The Alchemist mobile bar. Furthermore a touching tribute was dedicated to Virginie Huvelle, the founder of the Angels agency, who contributed to the success of the Luxembourg Nightlife Awards over the years, and who departed prematurely in 2023 at only 46 years of age.

Finally, Luxembourg Nightlife Awards is excited to strengthen its reach and importance in Luxembourg as a whole. During the past year an increasing presence of bars, bartenders and events from outside the capital could be recognized. LNA for example saw Ben from Landwirtschaft in Bourscheid placing second in the best bartender category of the jury and Mohamed from Casino 2000 in Mondorf winning the award in the public category.
