Announcement !

Ticket Sale for Koll an Aktioun Festival 2024 has started!

Kollibri asbl is happy to announce the 2024 edition of the famous family festival 'Koll an Aktioun' on May 18th and 19th at the very beautiful site of the 'Musée de l'Ardoise' in Haut-Martelange.

After a yearlong break, we are now excited to not only announce the new edition and the new dates, but also our new ticketing system!

The Koll an Aktioun

Since 2014, the Koll an Aktioun festival has been offering a varied programme for family audiences and fans of culture in all its forms. Alongside a line-up of national and international music, the festival will offer a wide variety of cultural activities in the impressive historic area of the 'Musée de l'Ardoise'.

Since its early days, this family festival has become a not-to-be-missed event in the national calendar. Together with the local authorities of Rambrouch and the Musée de l'Ardoise, the organisers of Kollibri a.s.b.l. are once again working hard to ensure that the 8th edition of Koll an Aktioun remains an unmissable event for all the family.

This year, we're letting the public determine their festival ticket price.

The base cost for a daily ticket is 25 EUR, and the Weekend-ticket is 40 EUR. Attendees can choose to contribute more if they can.

Why this approach? Organising a festival involves extensive work and resources, totaling around 40 EUR per day. This covers fees for artists, children's workshops, logistics, facilities, stage, and sound materials. We want to ensure the best Koll experience possible.

While we could have set a higher fixed price for financial stability, we believe in keeping culture accessible to all. Your contribution, no matter how small, helps bring the next edition of Koll an Aktioun Festival to life.

Needless to say that we are a non-profit organisation with a passionate volunteer team.
